Fall 1941 Price List

Superior Glads

Again it is time to present our fall price list and in a few weeks harvesting of bulbs will be in progress. This is your opportunity to reserve bulbs for your next summer's Glad garden. In spite of the increase in price in many commodities and the increase in wages, you will note that most varieties of Glads listed here are much lower in price than a year ago and as a special inducement for early orders, we are again giving special discounts. Large size bulbs of some of the cheaper varieties will be rather scarce but we expect to harvest a good crop of the newer kinds.

SPECIAL DISCOUNTS

On all orders for $5.00 or more accompanied by cash in full:

25% may be deducted if sent before Nov. 1st

20% may be deducted is sent before Dec. 15th

15% may be deducted if sent before 1941 catalogues are issued.

Collections and items from the quantity price list may be included if order totals $10.00 or more. On orders of $25.00 or more, you may select an additional 5% in extra bulbs.

TERMS

Prices quoted in this list are prepaid except on "quantity prices." Stock is preferably shipped in the spring unless orders are for quantities which may go by express. For customers who wish to pay transportation on items marked prepaid, we are glad to ship by express in the winter and add extra bulbs to offset carrying charges. Orders from the western states may be shipped as soon as stock is ready which is usually about the first of the year. One bulb or bulblet may be purchased at one-eighth the ten price and five at the ten rate, and 25 at the 100 rate when the item does not total less than 10c. Where bulbs are priced singly, ten may be ordered at eight times the unit price. We endeavor to send out healthy, true-to-name stock and are glad to make adjustments if stock proves otherwise. We thank our many customers who have written us letters of appreciation and if we failed to personally acknowledge your letter, we wish to tender our thanks now.

VARIETY COMMENTS

This past year there were fewer new varieties added to our list than commonly and to limit remarks to these would mean but a description of very few varieties. This list is different from the former ones in that we have appended a brief color description to the names of the varieties. This being the case, we shall give our impressions here of a few of the newer varieties and of some not altogether new.

Taking up our list alphabetically we find that Allegro is still about the best medium "blue." While Alchemy in common with some other yellows does not hold its size after being cut and is very subject to crooking in hot weather, it is the most beautiful yellow I have seen. Of the bright reds, Algonquin is near the top of the list. I think Amulet is about as fine in the buff class as any. Avalon should be good both as a commercial and exhibition variety and Barcarole remains the most beautiful orange but is rather temperamental. Some do not like blues to have white throats but Bluet is a favorite here. In light rose salmon, Capeheart just about stands supreme. C. W. Gannett exhibited some smoky tints in its salmon ground this year. It makes huge spikes. In deep rose shades, Chamouny is a leader.

Colonial Maid does not have big florets but gives consistently of its tall straight strong spikes. Colossus and Conquest are two varieties that remain among the favorites for cut flowers. Coral Glow is perhaps the most outstanding in its color class. In light rose purple Cordelia stands out. Diane is a fine late blooming tall orange salmon. For very tall spikes and large flowers, Don Bradman is very impressive. Much has been said about Ethel Cave Cole and one season's experience indicates that it should be a fine commercial and exhibition Glad. When a new lavender is introduced, we are usually skeptical but Elizabeth the Queen in one year's trial looked outstanding. Flora Farmer and Glamis are two fine pinks with lighter throat, entirely distinct from each other. Greta Garbo is one of the finest imported things that I have grown in several years.

Happy Days appears a competitor of Barcarole for beauty and while they are altogether different, the former seems to have better growing habits and it should become a leading commercial. In deep reds Hindenberg's Memory looks about as good as anything we have and has been taller this past year than before. Those liking Glads with many open blooms should grow Intrepid. Perhaps the Glad most resembling an orchid is Joseph Haydn. We wish we could persuade it to refrain from sprouting in storage. King Cardinal is a very tall large bright red. In the purples, King Lear seems the best variety we have. As a commercial, the large bright pink Laddie should go well. Margaret Beaton has been very fine for several years now and it will be some time before there is enough stock to go around even though it is a good propagator. Another tall bright red is Master Myron. Mine crooked some in hot weather this year but that may not be normal for it. As an exhibition white. Matterhorn seems the finest thing we have. Myrna is a very satisfactory ruffled cream. New Era is the most beautiful pink Glad but it does not do well everywhere. New Zealand Splendour makes large spikes of fine pink flowers. One of the most sought after cut flowers we have is Oregon Rose. Among the early Glads, Osmond, a bright orange, is among the best. Very softly and daintily colored with most slender graceful spikes, but yet tall and large is Queen Marilyn. Red Ensign is striking with its large white blotches. Rima is a favorite with florists and the deeper colored Rosa van Lima is going to be another good commercial. Ruffled Princess is a beautiful ruffled deep pink with cream throat. Sensation is well described by its name, a huge flower on very tall spikes. In the deep red, Timbuctoo stands out. While much different in type, Winston and White Gold look like very outstanding additions to the cream colored Glads.

Then there is the fine light red Valeria, the large light pink Merry Widow. the somewhat darker Stella Antisdale, the big pink and white Mermaid and many others that deserve attention.
